

2019 Family Owned Business Awards

Ted Morales, on behalf of Corporate Source Catering, has been selected as Inquirer's 2019 Veteran & Family Owned Business Award Winner. This awards program spotlights companies who embody the backbone of Philadelphia's economy, but still manage to stay true to their roots of honoring past tradition.

As a winner, Morales was evaluated by expert panel judges based on accomplishment in generational business success and acumen in addition to overall change, innovation, and impact in the industry. From the countless nominations Morales was selected as part of 40 winners who will be honored at an awards ceremony, as well as profiled in a special section on the Sunday Inquirer, which will reach over one million readers.
